

REVERSING THE GAZE IN AFRICA

AN ONLINE PANEL DEBATE ON THE FUTURE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION IN AFRICA

Monday, 19TH MAY
9am-10.30am UK 10am-11.30pm SAST

The event will encourage free-flowing debate around the state of international education from the perspective of African universities (social, institutional, economic, research, teaching and individual aspects) including opportunities and challenges over the next ten years.

REGISTER HERE

<https://www.cascade-foundation.eu/>

Gloria Castrillon

Gloria Castrillon, Senior Director of the Division for Teaching Excellence, University of Johannesburg

Felix Maringe

Felix Maringe, Deputy Vice-Chancellor for Institutional Development, Research, and Innovation, University of Kigali

Cecilia Wandiga

Cecilia Wandiga, Executive Director of the Centre for Science and Technology Innovations, Kenya

John Strachan

John Strachan, Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Research and Enterprise, Bath Spa University

Jonas Yawovi
Dzinekou

Jonas Yawovi Dzinekou, Director of the Institute for Social Transformation (IST) at Tangaza University, Kenya

Cascade is a not-for-profit foundation committed to helping education institutions across the world become more globally connected. By creating a community of practitioners, we want explore and respond to challenges surrounding internationalisation in different parts of the world. Applying new approaches to intercultural competence, co-creativity and social innovation we believe organisations can overcome the barriers they face and deliver transformative change.

Go to our website to find more information on what we do and why we want to reverse the gaze in international education.

Look out for further online sessions...

Workshop: Social innovation and co-creation response to AI

Workshop: Intercultural competence and course design

Roundtable: International Education in Latin America

Roundtable: International Education in Southeast Asia

Roundtable: International Education in MENA countries

