

Summer School in Italian language and culture

We are pleased to write to you from Ca' Foscari University of Venice to present our summer programs dedicated to the study of Italian language and culture.

Our schools and pathways have been designed not only as language programs but as strategic tools to meet the needs of prospective students. Our goal is to introduce international students to the possibility of pursuing university studies in Italy precisely through an initial approach to and knowledge of the Italian language and culture.

Furthermore, we would like to emphasize that these initiatives are open to all students who, regardless of their future plans, wish to study Italian within a stimulating academic environment.

For Summer 2026, our School for International Education (SIE) offers:

1. Summer School in Italian Language and Culture (On-site in Venice)

An immersive program in the heart of Venice, ideal for those who wish to combine intensive study with the discovery of academic life in Italy.

- Dates: July 6 – July 31, 2026 (4 weeks).
- Levels: From A1 to C2.
- Registration: From April 15 to May 29, 2026.
- Details of the Summer School

2. Italian Summer Online Pathway

A flexible, 100% online school designed for students who need to reach specific proficiency levels (A1-B2) before the start of the academic year or who prefer an initial contact with the university environment remotely.

- Dates: From June to September 2026 (monthly modules).
- Registration: From April 15 to May 4, 2026.
- Details of the Online Program

Benefits for Partner Universities

We would like to remind you that, thanks to our collaboration, reduced fees (discounted rates) are available for all your students across both programs. Upon registration, they simply need to indicate their category as "students from partner universities" to benefit from the reduction.