

Mobilities at The University of Bologna - Italy in the framework of the European Programme ERASMUS+ KA1*Objective

The Erasmus+ Programme – mobility offers the possibility to spend a period of teaching at The University of Bologna for Teaching Staff from the University of Sfax (Faculty of Literature and Human Sciences of Sfax “Department of Romance Languages”)

The Erasmus+ Programme is an initiative launched by the European Commission to fund mobilities among EU countries and between Programme Countries (EU countries) and Partner Countries (countries from the rest of the world). Every year, a new call for proposals will be open with the aim to promote socio-economic changes, jobs, social equity and inclusion.

Although the Erasmus program was initially addressed only to Programme Countries (EU), in 2015, for the first time, part of the EU funding will support mobility actions between Programme Countries and Partner Countries. To this respect, the Erasmus+ Programme is designed to support Programme Countries' efforts to efficiently use the potential of Europe's human talent and social capital, while confirming the principle of lifelong learning by linking support to formal, non-formal and informal learning throughout the education, training and youth fields. The Programme also enhances the opportunities for cooperation and mobility with Partner Countries, notably in the fields of higher education and youth.
