

Mobility call for Applications Universidad Pablo de Olavide (Spain) in the framework of the European Programme ERASMUS+ KA171

OBJECTIVE

The Erasmus+ Programme – mobility offers 3 mobilities for academic staff from the University of Sfax for teaching stay at The Universidad Pablo de Olavide.

The purpose of this call for nominations is to select candidates for teaching stay at the University Pablo de Olavide under the framework of the Erasmus+ programme Key Action KA107, during the first semester of the academic year 2025/2026 pursuant to the grant agreement 2022-1-ES01-KA171-HED-000069833.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The staff teaching stay will unfold in accordance with the provisions of the Erasmus+ programme Guide.

The Home Universities will be in charge of selecting staff and sending them to the University of Pablo de Olavide (UPO).

The University of Pablo de Olavide (UPO) will evaluate whether the pre-selection meets the requirements of this call.

The definitive admission procedure of the selected staff will subsequently be launched, allowing the stay to take place.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND CALL RESOLUTION

The UPO, the University of Sfax, and the applicants must follow the steps below:

- 2.1. The University of Sfax must publish a call for applications.
- 2.2. The University of Sfax must publish the mobility call on website and official notice boards.
- 2.3. Applicant staff from the University of Sfax will respond to the calls providing all the required documentation.
- 2.4. The University of Sfax will pre-select the candidates with the highest score according to the scales duly listed in this call.
- 2.5. The University of Sfax will send the nominations together with the required documentation.
- 2.6. Once the received documentation has been verified, selected candidates will be sent an email with instructions on the UPO admission procedure. Final admission will be subject to the staff compliance with the procedure.

2.7. The UPO will publish a list of Erasmus+ beneficiary staff on the following website: www.upo.es/es/aric.

2.8. The UPO will send a letter of admission to the beneficiaries so that they can process their visa in their home country.

2.9. The search for accommodation and/or language courses, when applicable, and the completion of visa procedures is the responsibility of each beneficiary; the International Relations and Cooperation Area (ARIC) will disseminate all information available to this end.

2.10. Before the start of the stay, the beneficiary must have an insurance that includes coverage for medical assistance, accidents and repatriation over the entire period of the academic stay, taking out the insurance policy offered by the UPO to international mobility participants. The participant will be responsible for any potential damages and losses caused (civil liability) during their stay that are not covered by their insurance.

2.11. The beneficiaries must respect any COVID-19 health and hygiene rules in force during their stay. The ARIC will inform participants of any available funding to cover all or part of the cost of medical tests which the participant is required to undergo.

2.12. At the end of the stays, beneficiaries will be given a certificate accrediting their stay that must be recognised by their home university.

2.13. The University of Sfax undertakes to send a copy of this recognition to ARIC.

GRANT SUPPORT

a) All beneficiaries shall be entitled to financial support, consisting of:

- Individual support: -160 euros per day (5 days of work + 2 days of travel)

- Travel support calculated according to the distance bands established by the programme and determined using the EACEA distance calculator https://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/distance-calculator_es

b) The UPO will calculate and pay the grants to the beneficiaries according to the dates of their actual stays.

c) The grant will be paid in a single payment upon arrival of the beneficiary once all the initial documentation has been delivered:

-Original copy of the signed Grant Agreement.

-Medical assistance, accident, and repatriation insurance.

-Academic agreement signed by all parties.

e) In cases where beneficiaries fail to meet the agreed conditions (renouncing to the stay, shortening the period of stay, or any other) with no valid justification, the UPO may claim the total or partial reimbursement of the received financial assistance, according to each case.
