

AHMAD HAJ KACEM

President of the University of Sfax

Dear students, professors, administrative and technical staff,

It is with immense pleasure that I welcome you to the website of our prestigious university. As president of this institution of excellence, it is my duty to ensure that every student can benefit from a rich and fulfilling learning experience.

Our university is a place where knowledge and innovation meet to shape the future. We are proud of our highly qualified faculty, who are dedicated to transmitting the latest knowledge and encouraging critical thinking among our students.

By browsing the websites of the institutions under the University of Sfax, you will discover the many quality academic programs we offer, covering a wide range of fields of study. Whether you are interested in science, arts, humanities, social sciences, sports, medicine or others, you will find with us the resources and opportunities you need to flourish and realize your aspirations.

We are also proud of our stimulating learning environment, which promotes interdisciplinarity, collaboration, and community engagement. We firmly believe that education is not limited to the classroom, but also encompasses practical experiences, innovative research projects, and partnerships with businesses and local organizations.

As a university, we are committed to supporting the success of our students by offering them guidance services, resources for personal and professional development, as well as a wide range of extracurricular activities to enrich their student life.

I would like to warmly thank all members of our university community for their dedication and contribution to our academic excellence. Together, we will continue to shape a promising future for our students and advance research and innovation.

I encourage you to explore our site, discover all that our university has to offer, and join us in this exciting adventure. Together, we can achieve great things and contribute to the progress of our society.
